

You'll do better at

AVERY'S

Department
Store

You can do Better at Avery's

We wish to show you that we mean what we say. We have the largest stock to choose from and can show you the different qualities and prices so you may better understand.

NIGHT GOWNS.

New buttonless gowns in tennis flannel for ladies and gents. Made of the best quality flannel, extra full, perfect fitting in the neck, when on can't rip or tear, but a perfect gown that has been tried and proved a success.

Price $1.
The best Value
in other Styles

50c.
75c.
98c.

Blankets and Flannels

THIS line was bought on the basis of cheap cotton, and we can give better values than ever before. Blankets in all sizes and weights, 49c. up.

Fancy plaid blankets at $1.50-$2.50 up.

Comforts, full size, 98c, 1.25, 1.39, $1.50.

COATS

Printzess Coats—the Quality Coats are perfection in style, tailoring and materials, complete line of the latest styles at

$15 to $35

Jayessco and Laurel coats from $4.98 up.

Corduroy Coats in colors $8.50 to $10. up

Plush coats 5 year's guaranteed satin linings, great values. $13.50 to $15 up.

Children's Coats Good values at $2.50.

Infants' Corduroy Bearskins and Plushes at $1.49 up.

Carried over coats to close out from $1.98 up.

New line Ladies' Neckwear

New line FUR trimmings in brown or black, per yard 50-75c.

Congolium Rugs, All Sizes:

1½ yd. by 1½ yd. stove rugs. .... $1.00

6 ft. by 9 Room size. .... 2.98

6 ft. by 12 ft. Room size. .... 3.98

9 ft. by 12 ft. Room size. .... 6.00

The Rebecca Degree Staff will have drill work at their next meeting, Nov. 17. All are requested to be present.

G. E. Chappell has issued a beautifully illustrated booklet of watches, diamonds, jewelry, silverware, clocks, white ivory, cut glass, etc. It is called the "Blue Book Of Gifts," and a copy will be mailed to you free upon request.

Mrs. Bert Ruben spent Wednesday in Decatur, the guest of relatives.

E. Dickerhoof went to Elkhart, Ind., Wednesday to be gone several days visiting relatives and friends and transact some business.

Bed Blankets the best for the money. at Lepper's.

Mrs. Catherine Cheffee suffered a stroke of paralysis last Saturday and is in a critical condition. Her son Mark was in the north woods hunting at the time but he was notified by wire of his mother's condition and arrived home Monday night.

W. P. Layton of Chicago was the Sunday guest of his brother, J. B. Layton and family.

Wanted—To work by the day or week. Enquire at this office.

Mrs. Mary F. Menig and daughter Ursula and her grandson, William, left the first of the week for their new home in Chicago. The other daughter Nell Menig will remain with the W. R. Sellick dry goods store until after the holidays.

The ladies of the Christian church will have a parcel post auction sale Wednesday evening November 17, in the building formerly occupied by Mrs. Barner's millinery shop. Refreshments will be served.

Dr. and Mrs. George Jackson spent last Sunday in Pokagon, the guest of their daughter Mrs. C. A. Barker.

The furniture firm of Hawley & Warner are disposing of their entire stock at very low prices. Be sure and look over their ad on page 5.

Fabric Gloves at Lepper's.

W. J. Warner and wife, Miss Virginia Roach and Paul Broughton were guests of friends in Kalamazoo last Sunday.

Mrs. Daniel Riley of Benton Harbor was the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Duncombe, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

The first meeting of the Fellowship club for the year will be held next Wednesday evening, Nov. 17 at the home of Howard Park, corner of Pine and Niles streets.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Methodist church have several pieced quilt tops on hand, and would like to take orders for home made bed comforts.

Ladies' Dress Skirts, great values at Lepper's.

Eugene Weston and Miss Elsie Dempsey of Dowagiac were guests at the Geo. Weston home over Sunday last.

Mrs. Ruth Watson of Dowagiac was a guest of Mrs. H. D. Maxham last Sunday.

Mrs. L. B. Gorton, Roy Tuttle and C. W. Van Tassel entertained several ladies last week Thursday to a thimble party at the home of Mrs. Van Tassel on Elm street. The party was given by the ladies to raise money for the missionary department of the Presbyterian church. A collection was taken and over $7.00 added to the fund. Dainty refreshments were served by the three hostesses and a very pleasant afternoon was spent to the betterment of a good cause.

Hosiery the best at the price at Lepper's.

Sheriff Beattie was in South Haven Monday, on business.

The Friday club will meet again this week at the home of Mrs. Miles Barber on north Kalamazoo street.

Single admission tickets for the lecture next Monday evening, by William Rainey Bennett, will be 35 cents.

House dresses at Lepper's.

G. W. Tuttle of Kalamazoo was in the city the first of the week visiting at the home of his brother, G. L. Tuttle, and wife.

Mrs. Daniel Morrison left Tuesday morning for a short visit among friends in Kalamazoo.

A dancing party will be given at the Maple City club rooms on Thanksgiving evening Nov. 25th.

The members of the Sewing club held a pot luck supper at the home of Mrs. Claire Harrison on north Kalamazoo street last Monday evening. The affair was in the nature of a farewell reception to one of their members, Mrs. Will Payne, who left Wednesday for the south and other points of interest for the winter months. A regular "Spread" of good things to eat fairly loaded the table, and it is needless to say that each and every one did ample justice to the same. A most enjoyable evening was reported by those present.

Underwear at Lepper's.

Van Buren Co. Pomona Grange will meet with Bangor Grange Thursday, Nov. 18.

All fourth degree members are invited.

OUR BURDENS.

Every evil and wasteful habit draws upon our strength and resources without making any proper return. On the other hand, every task faithfully done, every responsibility manfully borne in the path of duty, steadies us, like well bestowed ballast. There are loads that help us as well as loads that hinder. These we should cheerfully take up and those resolutely cast off.

High School Notes

Douglas Hindenach, '17

Fire drill was practiced last Thursday morning. The first trial everyone was out of the school building in a little over two minutes. The second trial the time was lowered to one minute and ten seconds.

Misses Dodge, Love and Shaefer visited school Friday.

In a basket ball game between the Sophomores and Freshmen the latter proved superior with a score of 20 to 18.

English XI started Shakespeare's Macbeth last Wednesday.

George Carr and Kathleen Buckley of the 6th grade were sick this week.

The library is now open every Thursday afternoon from 3:30 to 4:30. The librarians for the year are Florence Pepper of the high school and Stanley Watson of the 6th grade.

The 6th grade started Pilgrim stories this week.

The 8th grade has begun to make preparations for the school festival November 19.

The 8th grade average in spelling this week is 97.

Augusta Cross left school this week to attend in Grand Rapids.

The 7th grade has started to read "The Courtship of Miles Standish."

The picture study this week of the 7th grade is "The Pilgrims Going to Church." They are also preparing masterpieces to be given away at Christmas.

OUR ROLL.

Those who have paid their subscription to The True Northerner for the week ending November 12:

W. A. Prater, route 1
Dunne Maguire, route 1
E. A. Newcombe, route 2
Thomas Hutchins, route 1
Mrs. S. J. Lindsley, city
Mrs. C. E. Samuels, city
J. Cleveland, city
C. K. Duryea, city
Mrs. Elizabeth Joinskowski, city
Frank Tedrow, Bloomington
Mrs. Jennie Hutchins, Orlando, Cal.
Marie Cooper, Detroit
G. F. Young, South Haven
Wm. Rickerson, San Diego, Cal.

Unknown.

Tired Business Man—Take dancing lessons! Well, I guess not! There are too many other ways by which I can make a fool of myself. His Loving Wife—Yes, dear, but you have tried all of those.—Judge.

THROWN FROM MOTORCYCLE

Wayne Rider, son of Wm. Rider of Waverly township, had the misfortune to break his leg last Saturday. He was coming from Kalamazoo on a motorcycle when the accident happened. The machine struck a sandy place in the road and threw him. Lester Jennings who was passing in an automobile, brought the injured boy to Paw Paw, where Dr. J. C. Maxwell reduced the fracture. It was a bad break and will take some time to heal.

Real Estate Sales Made

Sales and exchanges made by E. E. Downing & Son, the live wires:

E. H. Colby and wife, 20 acres to Mrs. Ella Lamar, Battle Creek; Alford Danner, 30 acres to Mr. Johnson, Chicago; Mrs. Kevil, 20 acres to J. C. Phillips of Chicago; Mrs. Frank Stoll of Chicago; George Bruner to Leo Delhaye of Waukegan, Ill., 73 acres; J. C. Phillips to Katie Newburt, Chicago, 20 acres; John Frey 25 acres to John Yost of Chicago; Mr. Reeves, two flat on 63rd street Chicago, to Mr. Yokom of Paw Paw; Mr. Mulholland 3 acres to Joseph Delhaye, Highland Park, Ill.; Leland Warner, 40 acres to Jerry Prachar of Chicago; Mr. Yokom, 56 acres to Mr. Smith of Franklin Park, Ill.; Mrs. Katie Newburt to Rev. H. B. Gebhart of Ladd, Ill., 20 acres; Leo Delhaye of Waukegan, Ill., house and two lots to G. L. Bruner; C. N. Rowland, 60 acres to John Elce of Maywood, Ill.; Mr. Cooper, 55 acres to John Winarski of Chicago; Jerry Prachar, two flat in Chicago to Leland Warner, Paw Paw; Paul Smith, 35 acres to Mr. Barnett of Chicago; Mr. Stanton, 40 acres to Mr. Wagner of Chicago; Mr. Yokom, house and three lots to Mr. Reeves of Chicago; John Kroll, 40 acres to Morrissey of Chicago; John Kern of Chicago, three flat building on Ellis avenue, Chicago, to James Matlas of Necedah, Wis.; Mr. Berdsley of Chicago to Mrs. Eunice Downing of Maywood, Ill., three flat; Miss Mae Morrissey, 40 acres to H. J. Balcham, Oak Park, Ill.; Mrs. Ella Lamar, house and two lots in village of Paw Paw to Edwin Colby and wife of Paw Paw; Edmond Downing 35 acres to Mr. Demont of Chicago; Mr. Reeves' cottage on 63rd Place to Alvin Yokom, Paw Paw; Mrs. Eunice Downing house and two lots in Maywood to Dr. Berdsley of Chicago; Edmond Downing 40 acres to Mr. Hatt of Chicago; Alvin Yokom 40 acres to Mr. Reeves of Chicago; Leo Delhaye house and lot in Highland Park to G. L. Bruner; G. L. Bruner house and two lots in Paw Paw to Leo Delhaye, Waukegan, Ill.; E. E. Downing house and lot to B. L. Sowle, Paw Paw.

LOCAL JOTTINGS

B. H. Glidden of Mattawan bought a piano of Leland Gorton last week.

Frank Butterfield and family and his sister, Mrs. Ida Fox, and Allen Dayton motored to Grand Rapids, Sunday, to visit Mr. Butterfield's brother Arthur.

Rev. F. A. Shupe of the Christian church is attending the State Sunday school convention at Battle Creek this week and will give an address in Decatur on Friday evening. He and Rev. Flagg of Decatur will begin special evangelistic meetings in Lawrence next Tuesday evening.

Hats remodeled and made to suit you at Sanger & Gardner's. Prices right.

Mrs. Mabel Barber was home again this week to spend Sunday with her small son Clarence.

Chas O'barn of Dowagiac purchased a piano of L. B. Gorton while in town Tuesday.

Now is the time to get that hat you have been thinking about as the stock is complete and prices right at Sanger & Gardner's.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Warner were Kalamazoo visitors last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Payne and the latter's mother, Mrs. Julia Whitney, left Wednesday for Toledo, O., where they will remain until after Thanksgiving, and will then go to St. Petersburg, Fla., where they expect to spend the winter.

The annual county association of the Eastern Star will meet at Bangor next Tuesday, November 16. A good delegation is expected to go from this chapter.

The next number of the lecture course will take place next Monday evening, November 15, at the Colonial Theater. You should not miss this one as William Rainey Bennett is the man and you all must remember how well we all enjoyed his lecture last winter. He was the man who had the faculty of making us laugh whether we wanted to or not. Hear him again next Monday evening as it may be our last chance.

Thanksgiving comes on Thursday, November 25, just two weeks from yesterday.

L. B. Gorton was in Benton Harbor last Monday on piano business.

There will be a dancing party at the Maple City club rooms Thanksgiving evening, November 25.

Rev. A. O. Carman was in Centerville on Wednesday and Thursday of this week attending the annual conference of the Methodist churches that compose the Niles district.

Mr. and Mrs. H. L. King and Mrs. S. J. Lindsley left Tuesday morning for St. Cloud, Fla., where they will remain during the winter months.

The annual meeting of the Michigan State Horticultural society will meet in the city of Grand Rapids on December 7, 8 and 9. A fine program is prepared for the enjoyment of all.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Epley and Master George were among those who took advantage of the fine weather last Sunday and motored to Kalamazoo.

The weather man for the past three weeks has been doing all in his power to make good for some of the nasty weather he gave us during the past summer.

Mrs. Rachel Bailey returned Friday night from a two weeks' trip in the interest of temperance and suffrage. She also attended November 2 at Lansing the large gathering of temperance workers for launching the campaign for state wide prohibition. She reports that great enthusiasm and faith was manifested that the whole of Michigan would eventually be as white upon the map as Van Buren county has been for the last 30 years.

Married at the Methodist parsonage last Saturday afternoon at 5 o'clock, Henry G. Smith and Miss Lila A. Loveland, both of this place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. O. Carman.

Special bargains in hats at Sanger & Gardner's, Savings bank bldg.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Cole have been in Casopolis the past week, guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson.

Rev. J. L. Merrihew, a local preacher who resides at Mendon, was the guest of Rev. Carman and family on Saturday and Sunday.

Real estate transfers by Decker & Decker: Theodore Roush, Paw Paw, 40 acres in Almena to Frank Martin, Paw Paw; C. H. Kosh, Vicksburg, parcel of land in Almena to Asa F. Smith, Paw Paw; Asa F. Smith, house and three acres in Paw Paw to J. A. Miller, Toledo, O.; M. L. Decker Paw Paw, to L. D. Carson of Chicago, 90 acres Kalamazoo, $80 an acre; Frank Moore to M. L. Decker, two flat in Chicago; M. L. Decker to Paul Bloomhagen, grocery and meat market and two flat in Chicago. List your property with Decker & Decker, the home real estate dealers, and get results.

Advertised letters—Wm. Fye, Mr. Levant Montag, Mr. Fred Williams.

There will be a dancing party at the Maple City club rooms Thanksgiving evening, November 25.

Donald Payne and family expect to move to the city for the winter and will occupy the Will Payne house on Kalamazoo street.

Mrs. George Weston spent the latter part of last week in Lawrence, the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. F. Barrows.

One ticket to the New Colonial Theater will be given free with every 15 cents' purchase in trade, making two big values at the price of one, at the Golden Rule Store.

One-half off on all children's hats at Miss Lord's hat shop.

Rt. Rev. Bishop McCormick of Grand Rapids will visit St. Mark's church Wednesday, November 17, for confirmation and will preach in the evening.

Prof. Robertson of the Allegan schools was a Paw Paw visitor on Wednesday.

The Misses Jean Douglas of Kalamazoo and Olive Hartley of Gobleville were the week end guests of their aunt, Mrs. C. E. Wallace, at her summer home on the banks of Lake Cora.

Mrs. C. E. Wallace entertained G. S. Scorel and family at dinner last Sunday.

The citizens of South Haven are surely "seeing things," and South Haven is in our own Van Buren county. Last week someone saw the ghost of a woman strolling along the shore at Willow Beach. This woman was supposed to have been murdered on the beach several years ago. Monday's paper came out and said that a phantom boat had now joined the ghost hovering about the beach. We are wondering, what next? It may be the entire German army.

The Lady Macabees will hold a fancy dress party at their hall Thursday evening, November 18. Each member is privileged to invite one guest. Pot luck supper.

Wide awake buyers will take advantage of the big reductions in all millinery at Miss Lord's Hat Shop, beginning Saturday, November 13.

Big reductions on all millinery at Miss Lord's Hat Shop, beginning Saturday, November 13.

Cooley & Company now have their store nicely arranged and partitioned off so that you can find the grocery department situated on the east side and a complete line of new dry goods on the west. All is neatly displayed and makes a very attractive store. Eugene Cooley and his able assistant, Fred Glossup, have the groceries in charge. Rodney Speese, who has had several years' experience, has complete charge of the dry goods. They make a specialty of their shoes, corsets, underwear for all people of all sizes. They also carry many notions and every day adds a little more to their already full shelves and counters.

Our townsman, John Felter, received the sad news last week, that four of the leading business men, Messrs. Alder, Schroeder, Githens and Daub of Marshfield, Wis., had met a sudden and tragic death. While on their way to spend Sunday afternoon at the home of a friend in a rear by town their automobile was struck by the Soo train, and all four gentlemen were almost instantly killed. These men were all friends and intimate acquaintances of Mr. Felter.

Wanted—Family washings to do, will come after and deliver the same. Mrs. Elizabeth Joinskowski, So. Lagrave and St. Joseph streets.

Copyright Hart Schaffner & Marx

YOU may go anywhere, or everywhere; you'll be well dressed if you're wearing one of our

Hart Schaffner & Marx

Suits or Overcoats. We have styles for young men, for older men; we have sizes for large men and small men, stout or slender men, short or tall men. $17.50 to $23.00 Suits and Overcoats, latest styles and patterns, exceptional values at $9.75 to $17

UNDERWEAR For men who prefer Union Suits, we offer the best to be had.

Cotton ribbed and heavy cotton fleeced union suits, $1 Stephenson's wool union suits $2 to $3.50 Men's two piece, cotton ribbed and cotton fleece underwear 50c each. Stephenson's two-piece wool underwear $1 to $2.50

See our fall and winter line of Hats and Caps. All the latest styles and colors

Hats $1 to $3 Caps 50c to $1.50

Mackinaw Coats, Sweaters, Duck and Corduroy Coats, Pelt Lined Coats, Heavy all wool Kersey Pants

O'Grady Bros. Co.

The home of the Hart, Schaffner & Marx Clothes